Isaiah 61:1 "The Spirit of the sovereign Lord is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoner." We have been sent to reach the poor (more hope), the brokenhearted (more healing), the captives (more victory), and the prisoners (more light) – four categories of people who can be easily overlooked:

MORE Hope | At-Risk Girls | West Afrca

Hands of Honor (a ministry of CAMA) provides literacy, health, and life-skills training to young women ages 12-19. As domestic workers, these at-risk girls live in strangers' homes and are far away from their families.

MORE Healing | Pregnant Teens | Ecuador

Casa Elizabeth provides housing and resources for pregnant girls ages 11-18. Most are pregnant because of abuse from relatives and are placed in Casa Elizabeth through child protective services.

MORE Victory | Human Trafficking Survivors | Cambodia

Agape International Missions (AIM) helps rescue, restore, and reintegrate survivors of sex-trafficking. AIM Restoration Home gives 50 girls the opportunity to heal, learn new skills, and experience the love of Jesus in everyday life.

MORE Light | Female Prisoners | Philippines

Ina-Inakay Center, Inc., helps women released from prison to find small apartments and temporary jobs. Inakay has invested in a muscovado sugar manufacturing business as one employment option for the women.
