We would like to remind everyone that the church office no longer uses the old email address, vernema@wtca.net. That email address will be discontinued soon. Please make sure to update your records and use our current office email address for all church communication: office@verndalealliance.org. We made this change over a year ago, but we are still receiving messages at the old email address. Updating your contacts will help make sure communication is not missed. Thank you!
